

RICKS COLLEGE
Idaho 83460

POSITION VACANCY
ONE-YEAR APPOINTMENT

Department: English

Title: English Instructor

Position description: Responsible for teaching 15 hours each semester which would include three sections of freshman composition and two sections of introductory literature.

Qualifications: Master's degree with an emphasis in composition studies; high school or college experience teaching composition and literature. Applicant must be qualified to teach LDS religion classes.

Beginning date: Fall 1999

Application: A Ricks College faculty employment application, a résumé, two letters of recommendation, and an official college transcript.

Deadline: March 18, 1999

Contact: Wylene Jensen
(208) 356-1140

Ricks College is a private junior college owned and operated by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. With an enrollment of 8,500 students, it is the largest private two-year college in the United States. Ricks College is located in the community of Rexburg, Idaho, a town of approximately 14,000. Rexburg is situated within a two-hour drive of both Yellowstone and Grand Teton National Parks.

Ricks College is an Equal Opportunity Employer